

SHURAT HADIN FIGHTS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AT THE ICC

Fighting against terror and for human rights around the world

Marmara, a flotilla carrying provisions to Gaza in 2010. Ironically, Turkey has been committing war crimes for over 40 years against the population of northern Cyprus, which it invaded in 1974.

Shurat HaDin, in response to the Cypriot human rights organizations' request for assistance, has collected the necessary legal materials for the lawsuit and prepared an indictment.

The current cause of action against Turkey continues Shurat HaDin's mission of standing side by side with human rights organizations and victims of state supporters of terrorism around the world, such as North Korea, the PKK, and others. We continue to stand guard and strike terror organizations and their State sponsors through courts, and through their wallets, one lawsuit at a time.

Shurat HaDin

Fighting Terrorism – Doing Justice